

Hire Us to Represent You in 2021!

The North American Blueberry Council (NABC) is a national trade organization made up of members of the blueberry industry that serves as the lead advocate for the success and profitability of the highbush blueberry industry.

Join NABC to help ensure blueberries are represented in agriculture on both regulatory and political fronts. After all, there's strength in numbers and with NABC as your advocate, you can rest assured that the concerns of blueberry growers like you are represented.

NABC Members Benefit From:

- Advocacy for crop- and industry-related issues like immigration reform, trade negotiations and fair trade agreements.
- Communications about the value of blueberry growers to local economies.
- NABC meeting and event discounts.
- Opportunity to serve on NABC committees.
- Monthly cold storage reports.
- Annual blueberry statistical report.
- Weekly crop reports (April-September).
- Access to International Blueberry Organization (IBO) data.

NABC dues are based on your organization's annual production.

Join to help us advocate for your future and the development of a healthy and successful blueberry industry!

Simply complete this application form and submit to NABC.
